

Counsel Financial Addresses Significant Mass Tort Litigation Issues in Upcoming TrialSmith Webinar

Nation's leading law firm lender to present at Continuing Legal Education program

Counsel Financial is proud to announce that Kelly Anthony, Esq., the company's Deputy General Counsel, will speak at the continuing legal education webinar, Common Mass Tort Litigation Hazards, at 3 p.m. EST on October 13, 2016. The presentation, which is hosted by TrialSmith and sponsored by the Consumer Attorneys of California, will offer plaintiffs' attorneys insight into various factors that can negatively impact a mass tort litigation. Topics include federal preemption, lone pine orders, causation and obstacles that delay settlement distribution.

Ms. Anthony has nearly a decade of experience examining and evaluating the viability of mass tort litigations, will lead the live program. In choosing to speak at the webinar, Ms. Anthony stated, "Counsel Financial has provided plaintiffs' firms financing for 16 years. During that time, we have gained invaluable insight on issues that arise in mass torts from some of the nation's leading mass tort attorneys. Through this program, we hope to impart some of what we have learned so other members of the legal community can avoid problems that regularly occur in this complex field."

The webinar commences with a short introduction, followed by a one-hour presentation and live question-and-answer session. It can be accessed from the office, home, hotel or anywhere a computer with high-speed internet access is available. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions and post comments remotely. Registration is required and can be completed by visiting the TrialSmith website, which will also provide additional information on state-specific CLE accreditation.
