

Counsel Financial Announces Support of Cutting-Edge Mass Tort Event

Specialty lender sponsors Mass Tort Med School™ Conference

Counsel Financial announced today its sponsorship of the upcoming HB Litigation event, Mass Tort Med School™, being held in San Juan, Puerto Rico on May 3-4, 2016. The company will join leading plaintiffs' attorneys from across the U.S. in attending the conference, which provides practical insight into the medical and scientific issues emerging in mass tort litigation.

As part of the Mass Tort Med School™ program, lawyers will gain practical insight from doctors, lawyers, regulatory agencies, pharmaceutical company representatives and other professionals, via an intensive overview of a single litigation. The conference will also include updates on the resolutions in mature torts, such as transvaginal mesh, Actos, GranuFlo, Pradaxa, NFL, hip implant and Infuse bone graft litigations, as well as information about the systematic problems associated with diabetes drugs. Further, this year, unlike years prior, the Consumer Class Action conference will take place in the same location the day after the Mass Tort Med School™ program ends.

As the nation's largest lender exclusively to the plaintiffs' bar, Counsel Financial is continually pursuing opportunities, like Mass Tort Med School™, to remain highly educated in the developments arising in current and forthcoming mass tort litigation. With the knowledge garnered in programs like this, Counsel Financial believes it can help attorneys' achieve the best results for their clients by tailoring a financing plan specific to each plaintiffs' firms' needs. The company is committed to maintaining the highest level of understanding in the ever-changing world of plaintiffs' civil litigation and has a team of experienced lawyers dedicated to working alongside firms in evaluating the value of their portfolio, developing sound business plans, and overcoming the financial challenges inherent to a contingent-fee practice.
